

The Cambridge-Yerevan Sister City Association

Virtual ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING via Zoom with guest speaker

Prof. Gerard J. Libaridian, Univ. of Michigan, Ann Arbor (Retired)
Historian and Diplomat

Professor Libaridian will offer some thoughts on “The Current Situation in Armenia”

Gerard Jirair Libaridian is a retired professor of Armenian History (University of Michigan, Ann Arbor) and author of numerous books, articles and reports on modern Armenian history, contemporary politics, and international relations published in a number of Western and Middle Eastern languages. He has taught and lectured extensively in institutions of higher learning in the US and internationally.

From 1991 to 1997, Libaridian served as advisor to the First President of Armenia and as First Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Secretary of the National Security Council and chief negotiator with Azerbaijan and Turkey, among others.

He is currently working on a number of new book projects.

For additional information and Zoom registration please visit: <https://cambridgeyerevan.org>

Wednesday, May 4, 2022

7:00 pm: Presentation by Prof. Gerard J. Libaridian

7:45 pm: Annual business meeting for CYSCA members and others who wish to become members*

Membership is open to those who support the purposes of the Association and pay annual dues ($25 Individual, $50 Family and $10 Student). The membership year begins April 1. Please send a check made out to “CYSCA” to CYSCA Treasurer, P.O. Box 382591, Cambridge, MA 02238.*

For questions, email info@cambridgeyerevan.org .